

Immigrant Trust Directive-Attorney General Directive 2018-6

Immigrants who are the victim of certain crimes may be eligible to obtain legal status in the United States by application to the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). T-Visa or U-Visa, allows qualifying victims, who have information on a crime and/or criminal activity, temporary immigration status including work authorization; temporary immigration status for qualifying family members of the victim; and the possibility of lawful permanent resident status.

The West Wildwood Police Department follows the Immigrant Trust Directive also known as Attorney General Directive 2018-6 and will process a qualifying victims "U" or "T" Visa within 120 days of submission.

For further information please visit The United States Citizenship and Immigration Services website or <https://www.uscis.gov/I-918> .

For a list of qualifying crimes, refer to the "U and T Visa Law Enforcement Resource Guide" accessible at <https://www.dhs.gov/publication/u-visa-law-enforcement-certification-resourceguide>.
